Triple-C Camp!

What is this camp about?

Does this scenario happen in your family?

Child: My parents always say No! They're so old-fashioned and worry too much!

Parent: Gosh why do they argue! *
Can't they understand why I said no?!?! *

Based on the GROW Coaching Model, parents and pre-teens will work together to understand and agree on:

- Why good communication in the family is important *
- The building blocks to effective connections and communication such as active listening and asking "powerful" questions
- How to problem solve together and reach new levels of understanding
